Prudential Locations Expands Its Real Estate Presence in Kailua

The real estate agency's move to a new retail space solidifies its commitment to Windward Oahu

For Immediate Release

HONOLULU, HAWAII (September 24, 2009) – Prudential Locations, Hawaii's largest, locally owned and operated real estate agency, is making a strategic move to enhance business operations and grow its presence on the Windward side of Oahu. Today the company announced that it will be moving its Kailua office to a brand-new, 1300 square foot retail space at 151 Hekili Street in Kailua Town

"We feel that now is an ideal time to expand our presence in Windward Oahu and upgrade our office facilities for our agents and our clients," said Dan Tabori, executive vice president of business operations at Prudential Locations. "Our new, conveniently located office will increase visibility for the company as well as our ability to serve this community."

This vibrant, new office will serve as a home for Prudential Locations' Windward-based real estate agents and a convenient venue for individuals looking to buy or sell properties in this area. Clients can expect to find highly-trained real estate agents with in-depth knowledge of neighborhoods in this unique market.

"Securing one of Hawaii's premier, residential real estate companies to expand its commitment to servicing Kailua is a testament to our flourishing community and something we are very pleased about," added Mitch D'Olier, president and chief executive of Kaneohe Ranch Co.

Prudential Locations will be situated in the new ground-floor suite by the beginning of 2010, a year that the company will celebrate 40 years of serving the community.
